DVM RESIDENCY

Comparative Theriogenology - Davis, CA; UC Davis School of Veterinary Medicine

The clinical program in comparative theriogenology is designed to provide advanced clinical training involving the reproductive system, experience in clinical teaching, exposure to research techniques and the opportunity to conduct clinically oriented research. The training will focus on clinical as well as basic physiological aspects of domestic animal reproduction to strengthen the individual's preparation for board certification. The program emphasizes breeding management of the horse, with exposure to food animal and small animal reproduction, clinical diagnosis and treatment of the sub-fertile and infertile animal, and assisted reproductive techniques relevant to the discipline. Graduates should be well prepared for clinical academic appointments or for specialty practices. Minimum qualifications include graduation from an accredited school of veterinary medicine and a one-year internship or equivalent practice experience. The selection of residents is made on the basis of academic achievement, career objectives, letters of recommendation, interpersonal skills, clinical skills, and pertinent experience. The duration of the residency program is 2 years. Renewal for the second year will be contingent upon satisfactory performance. Responsibilities and activities of the resident include: Daily responsibility for clinical cases with senior staff and professional students at the VMTH and in our practice area; daily responsibility for management of the equine embryo recipient herd; presentation of and participation in Current Topics in Reproduction seminars, Morbility and Mortality Rounds and participation in large animal rounds; assisting in the teaching and supervision of professional students in the theriogenology program; emergency duty after-hours for Theriogenology cases. This program will not participate in the Veterinary Internship/Residency Matching Program. The deadline for receipt of application materials is December 3, 2018. Applicant must be able to begin the program on August 1. For additional questions, please contact Corey Vermilion at crvermillion@ucdavis.edu. For more information about how to apply, please visit <https://www.vetmed.ucdavis.edu/education/internships-residencies/general-info>. ### Veterinarian - Chipley, FL; Panhandle Veterinary Services

Panhandle Veterinary Services is a James Herriot type practice with a modern twist. We are located in Chipley Florida which is a small North West Florida town with easy access to beautiful beaches or traditional rural activities. There are five doctors working in this collegial style practice. We need a sixth inspired veterinarian to work with us in a collaborative environment. Our practice encourages compassion and innovation when treating and caring for our patients and their owners. In addition, the technician group is enthusiastic and works well as a team. Our modern well maintained facility houses both small and large animals. Our very mixed animal practice allows the veterinarian to care for a variety of animals while concentrating on a species or disciplines that one finds most enjoyable. Patients are seen in clinic and in a mobile setting. New or experienced veterinarians are encouraged to apply. Individuals with part time or flexible scheduling desires will be considered. The position offers competitive salary based on experience. Benefits include insurance, vacation, continuing education, professional dues, IRA, and emergency service bonuses. Please contact: Panhandle Veterinary Services, 900 Falling Waters Road, Chipley, FL 32428. To apply, please call 850-638-4857 or email your resume to Dr. Anderson at te\_anderson@att.net.

Associate Veterinarian - Flagstaff, AZ; Alpine Animal Clinic

Alpine Animal Clinic in Flagstaff, Arizona is hiring for a full-time Associate Veterinarian! We are open Monday through Friday, from 8am to 5:30pm, and do not take emergencies after-hours --- that means you will have weekends and evenings OFF!!! Our office is strictly small animal - primarily dogs, cats and reptiles. If you're comfortable with pocket pets and birds, we would be happy to expand! We see very, very few emergencies, and our focus is on general wellness / primary care. We are privately-owned, with a thirty-year history in Flagstaff. Our current owner, Dr. Mac Kenzie, purchased the practice in 2015, after working here as an Associate for many years. Our office is located in Flagstaff, Arizona - home to Northern Arizona University. Unlike the rest of Arizona, we experience every season and have snowy winters!!! We live in a truly beautiful town, and we think you'll love it as much as we do. Pay & Benefits are negotiable! For more information or to apply, please email alpinevet@safearcress.com.

ER Veterinarian - Erie, PA; NW PA Pet Emergency Center

The Northwest PA Pet Emergency Center (NWPaPEC), a privately owned after-hours emergency and critical care practice in Erie PA, has an immediate opening for a full time veterinarian. We provide after-hours emergency and critical care for 80+ Veterinarians (40+ practices) throughout the region of northwest PA, northeast Ohio, and southwestern New York. We strive to provide the highest quality patient care and are equipped with electronic medical records (Infinity/Impromed), Digital Radiography (radiology consults through PetRays), Ultrasound, Complete in house lab (Abaxis), and Surgical suite complete with monitoring (SpO<sub>2</sub>, BP, Capnography, ECG, etc) and anesthetic ventilator. Cases vary from the most basic emergencies to complex medical and surgical cases and our veterinarians routinely perform surgical procedures such as Exploratory laparotomy, C-Section, GDV, Splenectomy, and Enucleation. We are very supportive of continual learning and training of both our veterinarians and support staff. We regularly attend VECCS conferences, provide generous CE allowances to veterinarians and technical staff, and provide VIN access. Many of our technicians are CVT's or currently in training to become CVT's. Our full time veterinarians typically work 12-14 12hr shifts per month and we attempt to accommodate scheduling and time off requests. Erie, PA is home to Presque Isle along Lake Erie as well as many other lakes and parks including the National Forest. The area is abundant with numerous outdoor activities and is located 2 hours north of Pittsburgh, 2 hours east of Cleveland, and 1.5hrs south of Buffalo. The ideal candidate will have good communication skills, a positive attitude, good medical and surgical skills, and a willingness to continue to learn. Prior emergency practice experience or completion of a rotating internship is preferred but new graduates with an interest in emergency medicine and surgery are encouraged to apply. Mentoring and assistance with surgeries or detailed cases is available as needed. This is a great opportunity for those who are interested in practicing where you are able to work up medical cases and perform emergency surgeries. For more information or to apply, please email pharrington@eriepetemergency.com.
