Associate Veterinarian: State College, PA; Centre Animal Hospital

Seeking Associate Veterinarian in Happy Valley Looking for a day practice in a fabulous small city with a great vibe? Centre Animal Hospital in State College, PA could be your new home! Our privately owned, small animal practice has been in business for over 30 years. We focus on wellness and preventative care for canine and feline patients and also see a smattering of pocket pets. In addition, CAH offers general surgery, dentistry and oral surgery, orthopedic surgery, ultrasound, reproductive services, laser therapy and more. Our team members are Fear-Free certified and are dedicated to providing the least-stressful medical care possible to our patients. Our experienced veterinary nurses, including many with more than 10 years of service in our hospital, care for our patients, support our doctors and allow us to practice high quality medicine. Our doctors work collaboratively with each other; rounding on cases, discussing radiographs and cooperating in surgery. Our schedule also allows time for medical work-ups and client education. Centre Animal Hospital is located in the university town of State College, home to Penn State and offers numerous cultural and sporting events, as well as opportunities for hiking, cycling, trail running, horseback-riding, skiing, golfing, fishing, camping and much more. Money Magazine rated State College as the fifth best place to live among northeast small cities, and we also were rated by Places Rated Almanac as the seventh safest city. You will love our Happy Valley nestled in Centre County, right in the middle of the Pennsylvania Mountains. The public school district is among the top rated in PA. Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Washington, DC are all just a few hours away, and an airport serving several major hubs is minutes away from downtown. New grads with skills or interest in general medicine, surgery, orthopedics or dentistry are invited to apply. We have a comprehensive mentoring program that we will adjust based on your skills and interests. Salary will be commensurate with experience and benefits include health insurance, matching retirement benefits, continuing education and signing bonus. Assistance with student loan repayment can also be negotiated. We respect our doctors' work-life balance: no emergency or on-call duty is required. We are supported by a local veterinary ER in our off hours. We are a family-friendly employer and will work to accommodate your schedule. If you have questions or need more information, please feel free to contact our practice owners, Deb Smart, DVM drsmart@centreatanimalhospital.com or Renee Calvert, DVM, drcalvert@centreatanimalhospital.com . To be considered for this position, please send a resume to: Connie Passmore, Hospital Administrator, Centre Animal Hospital, 1518 W.
