Full or Part-Time Integrative Position Available: DeLand, FL; FloridaWild Veterinary Hospital

We are a 5 doctor integrative veterinary practice in DeLand, Florida caring for small animals, exotics, and wildlife. Our three senior doctors have a combined total of over 60 years of experience and hold CVA certifications from Chi Institute; one is also a certified herbalist. Cutting edge western medical diagnostics and interventions (in house lab and ultrasound, echocardiography, radiosurgery and vessel sealing surgical equipment, digital dental radiography) are paired with traditional Chinese, holistic, and alternative therapies. We utilize acupuncture, neuromyofascial release, class IV laser, ozone therapy / ultraviolet phototherapy, meridian stress analysis and hyperthermia therapy along with other alternative modalities. We often include western and eastern herbs along with nutrition changes and supplement use in our treatment plans. As you might imagine, we enjoy an endlessly interesting case load with a larger than average population of cancer and chronic disease patients. These frequently become long term and loyal clients who enjoy our wellness and preventative care programs.

We also support a thriving wildlife service. Injured wild animals are brought in by members of our community, animal control, and FWC allowing us to triage, treat, and release some of our native fauna. This is a service that brings our entire staff great joy and provides valuable medical experience to our team. Our doctors work closely together and hold weekly rounds to discuss cases and share ideas. It is common for us to team manage a case when complementary or advanced surgical therapies are needed, providing a younger or less experienced clinician the chance to learn alongside a more senior doctor. Mentorship is taken seriously and training / administrative time is built into our full time associates' schedules. We actively attend traditional, exotic, and holistic veterinary conferences in order to constantly improve patient outcomes. This associate position will allow the correct candidate to increase their comfort with integrative therapies and challenging cases or to continue their work and hit the ground running if already familiar with this type of work. Salary is commensurate with experience. Please contact: Dr. Jessica Hathaway, DVM, CVA Floridawild Veterinary Hospital 115 E Euclid Avenue DeLand FL 32724 Phone: 386-734-9899 Fax: 386-734-1960 Email: Drhathaway.FloridaWild@gmail.com

Veterinarian- United States, Easyvetclinic

We created easyvetclinic for the sole purpose of making basic veterinary care convenient and affordable again. We can accomplish this because we do not offer the more expensive services found in full-service hospitals, like surgery, hospitalization, and radiology (we have relationships with other veterinary hospitals if your pet should need such services). By focusing on standard, routine services and products, we save on expenses and pass these savings directly to you. Making vet visits affordable makes it easier for you, to bring your pets in more frequently to ensure their continued good health. Interested candidates please contact rebeccatamer@easyvet.com for more information.
