

2023 - 24 COST OF ATTENDANCE

The cost of attendance (COA) is an estimate of UF CVM expenses. You may be awarded financial aid up to your COA; financial aid cannot exceed COA. Room and food figures below reflect off-campus allowances. Students living on campus or with parents will have different figures.

DVM students pay block tuition in fall and spring, and therefore do not pay tuition in summer. Summer enrollment is REQUIRED to receive summer financial aid.

DVM/MPH students pay tuition on a per-credit-hour basis. Therefore, DVM/MPH students will be charged tuition for every semester in which they are enrolled. Enrollment is a requirement to receive financial aid. DVM/MPH COA is on page 2 of this document.
