UF UNIVERSITY of FLORIDA
College of Veterinary Medicine

From High School to Vet School

High School: Begin logging hours of Animal Experience, Veterinary Experience, & Extracurricular Activities

Freshman Year of College: Begin enrolling in prerequisite courses

Sophomore/ Junior Year of College: Pursue opportunities for teamwork and leadership experience (e.g. executive board position)

Junior/ Senior Year of College: Complete VMCAS & UF Vet Med Professional Application

Senior Year of College: Participate in mock interviews wherever possible

After Being Accepted: Work on getting immunizations and completing online orientation modules

High School: Consider enrolling in AP/IB/AICE/CLEP or Dual Enrollment classes to get a strong Science foundation

Freshman/ Sophomore Year of College Log hours of Veterinary, Research, & Animal Experience and Extracurricular Activities

Junior/ Senior Year of College Log hours of Veterinary, Research, & Animal Experience and Extracurricular Activities

Senior Year of College: Continue to gain veterinary experience and complete prerequisites

After Being Accepted: Ensure that all final transcripts are submitted by the deadline

After Being Accepted: Join your new class for Orientation and First-Year Leadership Experience!

Specific dates for each admissions cycle may be found on our website!